

1998-2015 Statistics

Total number of births 1390

Average maternal age 30 years old

Youngest 15

Oldest 46

First babies	401	29%
5th or more baby	93	6.7%
Baby girls	675	49%
Baby boys	715	51%

Average birth weight 8 lbs

Smallest 4 lbs 14 oz

Largest 11 lbs 2 oz

Number of transfers during labor or after the birth

Mothers 161 12%

Babies 29 2%

1. Maternal fever (1)
2. Postpartum hemorrhage (3)
3. Repair of laceration (10)
4. Prolonged labor (117)
5. Prolapsed cord (2)
6. Hypertensive disorders (2)
7. Retained placenta (2)
8. Unexpected Breech (2)
9. Fetal distress (3)
10. Spontaneous double pneumothorax (1)
11. Newborn respiratory distress (28)
12. Pain medication (7)
13. Birth defects (2)
14. Meconium in amniotic fluid (2)
15. Partial placental abruption (1)

Number of cesareans 68 (5%)

Number of successful VBACs 36 (3%)

Outcomes: All mothers well. One baby died in the hospital 8 days after birth after being transported for respiratory distress of unknown origin. One baby died in the hospital 3 weeks after birth after being transported for respiratory distress also of unknown origin. One baby was born depressed because of severe shoulder dystocia and died shortly after birth. One baby died precipitously in labor due to an umbilical cord abnormality.